Pastoral Reflections

Scripture Reflection (4th, Sun in Ord. Year C)

This book begins with the declaration that God knew Jeremiah before he was formed. In forming the prophet, God has a purpose for him just as a potter has a purpose in mind before he begins to form clay on a wheel. Fittingly, Jeremiah's oracles include references to the potter and clay. If Judah and the nations accept the prophet's invitation to change, then God will shape them into something truly admirable.

Jesus has just returned to his hometown of Nazareth where he read Isaiah chapter 61 at the synagogue service. After he had finished the reading, he handed the scroll back to the attendant. Then Jesus said, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." This is the verse that closed last Sunday's Gospel. Today's Gospel begins with the very same verse.

Jesus fulfills Old Testament prophecy. At first, members of the synagogue congregation are impressed with Jesus. However, as soon as they understood that Jesus sees himself as the prophet described in that passage, the people's mood and response change drastically. How can Jesus who is only a "local boy" make such outrageous claims for himself? Who does he think he is? Jesus, of course, is well aware of the negative response. However, rather than attempt to calm the people down, he throws more fuel on the fire.

Jesus is the new Elijah and Elisha. The people of Nazareth think Jesus should have helped his own hometown people rather than helping people in Capernaum and other places. Jesus responds by telling two stories, one dealing with Elijah assisting a gentile woman in Zarephath, and the other describing how Elisha helped Naaman the Syrian, another gentile. Jesus clearly points out that in both cases there were plenty of Jews who were in need of similar help, but Elijah and Elisha focused on helping gentiles rather than Jews. For Luke, the point is that Jesus can be seen as the new Elijah and Elisha because he does what they did to fulfill their prophetic calls. The ministry of Jesus will continue to fulfill this prophetic call as he embraces the vision of Isaiah chapter 61.

Jesus is rejected by his hometown. Having heard Jesus declare that he fulfills the prophesy of Isaiah chapter 61 and expand on how he fulfills the prophets Elijah and Elisha, the mood of the people has shifted drastically from support to rejection. All this sounds like blasphemy to them, and thus they want to kill Jesus. They want to throw him off the brow of a steep hill, but they cannot. Jesus remains protected for a time. That protection will end when Satan returns in the form of Judas.

Presentation of the Lord

At the end of the fourth century, a woman named Etheria made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. Her journal, discovered in 1887, gives an unprecedented glimpse of liturgical life there. Among the celebrations she describes is the Epiphany, the observance of Christ's birth, and the gala procession in honor of his Presentation in the Temple 40 days later. Under the Mosaic Law, a woman was ritually "unclean" for 40 days after childbirth, when she was to present herself to the priests and offer sacrifice, her "purification." Contact with anyone who had brushed against mystery, birth or death, excluded a person from Jewish worship. This feast emphasizes Jesus' first appearance in the Temple more than Mary's purification. The observance spread throughout the Western Church in the fifth and sixth centuries. Because the Church in the West celebrated Jesus' birth on December 25, the Presentation was moved to February 2, 40 days after Christmas. At the beginning of the eighth century, Pope Sergius inaugurated a candlelight procession; at the end of the same century the blessing and distribution of candles which continues to this day became part of the celebration, giving the feast its popular name: Candlemas. This feast day is observed on February 2nd.

Coming Soon ~06, February, 2022~

Is 6:1-2a, 3-8. Psm 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8. 1 Cor 15:1-11. Lk 5:1-11. Believing Christ's Rising. Isaiah and Luke relate stories of being called to do God's work. Paul, in the second reading, recounts the Good News in which we stand and in which we are saved. Namely: Jesus died, was buried, was raised on the third day, and then appeared to many. He is with us still.

- How do I experience the risen Christ in daily life? My life? Other's lives?
- How will I "press in on Jesus" (Luke) to hear his saving words?
- From what does this Christ save me this day? Then tomorrow? Then the next day?
